

VISIT
PITTSBURGH

With scenic vistas, an award-winning culinary scene, vibrant arts and cultural events, and celebrated sports teams, Pittsburgh has something for everyone.

Pittsburgh is within 500 miles of more than half the U.S. population – less than a 90-minute flight from 50 percent of North America's population and under six hours by car or train to nine states, D.C. and Canada.

As the front door and first impression for millions of annual travelers to the region, the Pittsburgh International Airport is currently undergoing a $1.4 billion effort to transform the airport experience. The new 700,000-square-foot terminal will open in early 2025 with key design features, including large outdoor terraces and touchless processes. The new terminal will consolidate and streamline operations including ticketing, baggage handling, security, ground transportation and concessions.

ARTS & CULTURE

The vibrant arts and culture scene is alive and thriving in Pittsburgh. Throughout the city, galleries and museums, like The Warhol and Heinz History Center, offer everything from cutting-edge to classic. The entertainment is endless, and the quality and variety is superb.

FOOD & BEVERAGE

Pittsburgh is a city built on innovation, and that certainly doesn't stop with the food thanks to our chef-driven fare and booming craft beverage scenes. Taste farm-to-table flavors from award-winning chefs. Sip locally crafted Witbier and whiskey, and experience heritage-led food festivals that take your palate on a tour.

SPORTS

Aptly named the City of Champions, Pittsburgh is home to three widely-known professional sports teams – the Steelers, Penguins and Pirates. Beyond our love for black and gold, Pittsburgh hosts a wide array of other notable sporting events, from NCAA championship events to large-scale national and global events.

OUTDOOR RECREATION

One of the best ways to explore Pittsburgh is to take to our streets by bike or on foot to experience its natural beauty, unique terrain and diverse offerings at every turn. Plus, there are plenty of opportunities for watersports, including boating, kayaking and paddleboarding on Pittsburgh's three rivers.

FAMILY-FRIENDLY

Pittsburgh is a family-friendly destination thanks to its many unique, affordable attractions and activities for all ages, such as the National Aviary or the Children's Museum of Pittsburgh. With an experience fit for every member of the family, Pittsburgh is bursting with history, science, entertainment and adventure.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Pittsburgh offers a wide selection of world-class accommodations that are bound to impress visitors, from luxurious boutique options to economical and familiar and some hidden gems in between. One thing all these hotels have in common: the welcoming attitude that makes Pittsburgh so special.

INCLUSIVITY

As a city built by immigrants, Pittsburgh hosts many events and festivals to celebrate diverse cultures, from Juneteenth Freedom Day, to Pride Revolution, and more. But you don't need to be at one of these events to experience Pittsburgh's comradery – no matter where you find yourself, you'll be embraced with kindness.

Pittsburgh will surprise you.

For more information, please contact:
grouptour@visitpittsburgh.com
412.325.0313

For sample itineraries, recommendations, additional resources
and more, scan the QR code:

